

Public Service for New Starter Executives

AG

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Overview

Public Service for New Starter Executives is designed to give newly appointed senior executive band 1 public servants who have not previously worked in the public sector knowledge, confidence and tailored skills to assist their successful transition to senior public service roles.

The workshop is appropriate for existing public servants who may be transitioning to senior roles.

Participants work through four case studies covering significant issues faced by senior public servants. These will test and build capability for the actual, 'real-life' experiences faced by senior executive public servants

Who is it for?

Individuals entering or planning to enter the senior executive service of the public service.

Duration

2 days (1st day is the Public Service for New Starters)

Delivery

Four work-based group activities, including presentations, group tasks and case studies
